Waiver of Liability

Under Wisconsin law, there is no liability for and injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, pursuant to sections 1 through 4. You are assuming the risk of participation in this equine activity. Inherent risks of equine activities include, but shall not be limited to:

1. The propensity of a horse to behave in ways i.e., running, bucking, biting, kicking, shying, stumbling, rearing, falling or stepping on, that may result in an injury, harm or death to persons on or around them:
2. the unpredictability of a horse's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals;
3. certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions:
4. collisions with other domestic animals or objects; and
5. the potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the horse or not acting within such participant's ability

I have been informed of the Wisconsin law and understand that I cannot hold Great Lakes Friesian Horse Association responsible for any injury or death due to equine activities.

Code of Conduct

The Great Lakes Friesian Horse Association strictly adheres to FHANA's Code of Conduct, attached here. By signing here you agree to adhere to the FHANA Code of Conduct. Violation of this code of conduct could result in your removal from this event. No refunds or reimbursements will be given.

Friesian Horse Association of North America

Code of Conduct

The mission of The Friesian Horse Association of North America (FHANA) is "To Protect and Promote the KFPS Friesian Horse in North America." In order to help FHANA succeed in this mission, a standard of conduct must be outlined for the membership. Adherence to this Code helps to ensure a safe and positive environment for all involved in FHANA's business affairs, inspections, activities, programs, events, social media presence, and chapter activities.

Standards of Conduct

It is the policy of FHANA that its members, employees, board directors, committee members, mentors, site hosts, chapters and chapter members uphold the highest level of ethical and professional behavior, and shall:

1. Act in accordance with FHANA's By-Laws and Rules & Regulations.
2. Treat with respect and consideration all persons, regardless of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, maternity, marital or family status, disability, age or national origin. FHANA supports equal opportunity, prohibits discriminatory practices, and is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and fairness.
3. Respect and protect privileged information to which they have access in the course of conducting official FHANA duties.
4. Exhibit professional and ethical behavior in any and all FHANA related activities. An even higher standard of behavior is expected from longstanding members, former board directors, and those in current or past leadership roles within FHANA.
5. Refrain from hostile communication with FHANA office employees.
6. Ensure any communication about FHANA, including social media posts, comply with FHANA's policies on confidentiality and disclosure of proprietary information.
7. Be aware that all FHANA policies that regulate conduct apply to social media activity.
8. Agree that unless given written consent, FHANA's logo may not be used in print or social media posts, per FHANA Rules and Regulations.
9. Understand that all FHANA event attendees and site hosts are expected to conduct themselves in a polite, professional and respectful manner. This Code pertains to all Inspection attendees regardless of their membership with FHANA or a chapter.
10. Support FHANA in protecting all members from bullying, harassment, intimidation, or any other kind of predatory behavior.
11. Make the health and safety of horses, members and attendees paramount at all FHANA related activities or events.
12. Make known when representing FHANA in any capacity, one's personal opinions are not that of the organization.

Enforcement

Violations of the Code may result in penalties of varying or accelerating degrees, depending on frequency or severity. Serious violations and their consequences fall under the jurisdiction of the FHANA Grievance Policy, FHANA By-Laws, and FHANA Rules and Regulations.
